Costs:

Public liability insurance and "Walking SA" membership and AHW administration fee. From July 2010

Optional membership: Suggest: regular walkers - $20.00 (all inclusive of above) or occasional walkers: - $11.00 (PL insurance and "Walking SA membership) plus $2.00 per walk. First time walkers are covered free as guests. The AHW administration covers costs such as printing, postage and telephone calls.

Passengers sharing car expenses:

The leader will suggest an amount on the day. E.g. Mt Crawford, 3 passengers = $6.00 per person. It is expected that passengers will offer the driver the recommended amount to cover fuel and running costs.

Drivers: Please accept the money when offered by the passengers.

Check list for day walks:

Walks often take place in areas where no shops are available. All food and drink should be carried on the walk, unless specifically stated otherwise.

Food: Lunch, nibbles.

Drink: Take plenty of water and any other non-alcoholic liquids as required.

Clothing:

Please check the weather report for the day and wear clothes suitable to the climate. Wear sturdy walking shoes, socks, rain gear and/or other clothing suited to the environment (eg. jeans or long pants may be suited to bush walks to protect your legs, but shorts may be more suitable for walks in the city/ parklands) Protection: Sunscreen, hat, sunglasses, personal first aid kit, etc.

Disclaimer:

Walkers participate in the walks on the basis that they are responsible for their own actions and decisions. The Happy Wanderers are not responsible for the condition of the trail, weather or wild life and cannot be held responsible for any accidents or events that may injure/damage walkers or their property. New walkers will be asked to sign a Risk Waiver form. The programme is subject to change without notice. Whilst the website will be kept up to date as practicable, details of the actual walk will be provided on the day or by contacting the leader prior to the walk. The day walks are planned as a full day activity and may finish late in the afternoon.
